

That Tired Feeling

Makes you seem "all broken up," without life, ambition, energy or appetite. It is often the forerunner of nervous troubles. It is a positive proof of thin, weak, impure blood; for, if the blood is rich, red, vitalized and vigorous, it imparts life and energy to every nerve, organ and tissue of the body. The necessity of taking Hood's Sarsaparilla for that tired feeling is therefore apparent to every one, and the good it will do you is equally beyond question. Remember

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Is the best in fact the One True Blood Purifier.

Hood's Pills cure liver ills, easy to take, easy to operate. 25 cents.

FIRE AND LIFE

INSURANCE AGENCY.

Established in 1854.

NOW REPRESENTING

ROYAL WESTERN ASSURANCE, English C.

"Georgia Home,"

Virginia Fire and M.,

"Niagara," Rochester German

"Insurance Company of North America"

E. NYE HUTCHISON,

AGENT,

Office Springs corner, Trade and Tiyor streets Up-Stairs.

Nov 29, 1895. Charlotte, N. C.

Nov 29, 1895. Charlotte, N. C.

Nov 29, 1895. Charlotte, N. C.

Nov 29, 1895. Charlotte, N. C.

Nov 29, 1895. Charlotte, N. C.

Nov 29, 1895. Charlotte, N. C.

Nov 29, 1895. Charlotte, N. C.

Nov 29, 1895. Charlotte, N. C.

Nov 29, 1895. Charlotte, N. C.

Nov 29, 1895. Charlotte, N. C.

Nov 29, 1895. Charlotte, N. C.

Nov 29, 1895. Charlotte, N. C.

Nov 29, 1895. Charlotte, N. C.

Nov 29, 1895. Charlotte, N. C.

Nov 29, 1895. Charlotte, N. C.

Nov 29, 1895. Charlotte, N. C.

Nov 29, 1895. Charlotte, N. C.

Nov 29, 1895. Charlotte, N. C.

Nov 29, 1895. Charlotte, N. C.

Nov 29, 1895. Charlotte, N. C.

Nov 29, 1895. Charlotte, N. C.

Nov 29, 1895. Charlotte, N. C.

Nov 29, 1895. Charlotte, N. C.

Nov 29, 1895. Charlotte, N. C.

Nov 29, 1895. Charlotte, N. C.

Nov 29, 1895. Charlotte, N. C.

Nov 29, 1895. Charlotte, N. C.

Nov 29, 1895. Charlotte, N. C.

Nov 29, 1895. Charlotte, N. C.

Nov 29, 1895. Charlotte, N. C.

Nov 29, 1895. Charlotte, N. C.

Nov 29, 1895. Charlotte, N. C.

Nov 29, 1895. Charlotte, N. C.

Nov 29, 1895. Charlotte, N. C.

Nov 29, 1895. Charlotte, N. C.

Nov 29, 1895. Charlotte, N. C.

Nov 29, 1895. Charlotte, N. C.

Nov 29, 1895. Charlotte, N. C.

Nov 29, 1895. Charlotte, N. C.

Nov 29, 1895. Charlotte, N. C.

Nov 29, 1895. Charlotte, N. C.

Nov 29, 1895. Charlotte, N. C.

Nov 29, 1895. Charlotte, N. C.

Nov 29, 1895. Charlotte, N. C.

Nov 29, 1895. Charlotte, N. C.

Nov 29, 1895. Charlotte, N. C.

AS MONEY SEES IT.

Spain is Unable to Cope With the Insurrection.

Senator Money, prefacing his description of his trip to Cuba, writes the New York Journal:

"I returned yesterday after a two weeks' absence on a visit to Cuba. I went there to personally inform myself, for my own guidance, as a member of the House Foreign Affairs Committee, as to the condition of things in the island. Accounts have been so conflicting and the reports from Havana so diverse that I concluded to make some personal discovery in the matter for myself. There is nothing which I learned that the public should not know, and because of the wide circulation of your paper—especially in the South—I ask permission to inform the public through the Journal."

"At the very outset I will say that everything I saw and heard taught me that Spain is unable to cope with this insurrection. She will never put it down; Spain will never end this war with victory to herself."

"This is also the opinion of Consul General FitzHugh Lee, and he has heretofore expressed it to Secretary Olney. He has told the Secretary of State that the insurrectionists, whether soon or late, were bound to succeed. The last thing General FitzHugh Lee said to me as I left Havana was: Please see Secretary Olney and tell him to day I am more firmly convinced than ever that Spain cannot put down the insurrection, and that every day it continues means a loss of life and property, without the remotest encouragement of any final Spanish success. As I long since told him, the insurrection will succeed. My judgment to that effect receives daily confirmation."

"After this there is no further use of denying the presence of money in the hands of Republicans, and it is fair to say that it is or will be used for the election of Mr. Pritchard or any other man they see fit to run, in the event he cannot be pulled through."

"Without mentioning names, though they will be if it ever becomes necessary, it may be stated that this check came through one attorney to another, but not for the purpose the first attorney thought, although he probably had good grounds for so believing, but subsequent events have shown that he was in error."

"After this there is no further use of denying the presence of money in the hands of Republicans, and it is fair to say that it is or will be used for the election of Mr. Pritchard or any other man they see fit to run, in the event he cannot be pulled through."

"Without mentioning names, though they will be if it ever becomes necessary, it may be stated that this check came through one attorney to another, but not for the purpose the first attorney thought, although he probably had good grounds for so believing, but subsequent events have shown that he was in error."

"After this there is no further use of denying the presence of money in the hands of Republicans, and it is fair to say that it is or will be used for the election of Mr. Pritchard or any other man they see fit to run, in the event he cannot be pulled through."

"Without mentioning names, though they will be if it ever becomes necessary, it may be stated that this check came through one attorney to another, but not for the purpose the first attorney thought, although he probably had good grounds for so believing, but subsequent events have shown that he was in error."

"After this there is no further use of denying the presence of money in the hands of Republicans, and it is fair to say that it is or will be used for the election of Mr. Pritchard or any other man they see fit to run, in the event he cannot be pulled through."

"Without mentioning names, though they will be if it ever becomes necessary, it may be stated that this check came through one attorney to another, but not for the purpose the first attorney thought, although he probably had good grounds for so believing, but subsequent events have shown that he was in error."

"After this there is no further use of denying the presence of money in the hands of Republicans, and it is fair to say that it is or will be used for the election of Mr. Pritchard or any other man they see fit to run, in the event he cannot be pulled through."

"Without mentioning names, though they will be if it ever becomes necessary, it may be stated that this check came through one attorney to another, but not for the purpose the first attorney thought, although he probably had good grounds for so believing, but subsequent events have shown that he was in error."

"After this there is no further use of denying the presence of money in the hands of Republicans, and it is fair to say that it is or will be used for the election of Mr. Pritchard or any other man they see fit to run, in the event he cannot be pulled through."

"Without mentioning names, though they will be if it ever becomes necessary, it may be stated that this check came through one attorney to another, but not for the purpose the first attorney thought, although he probably had good grounds for so believing, but subsequent events have shown that he was in error."

"After this there is no further use of denying the presence of money in the hands of Republicans, and it is fair to say that it is or will be used for the election of Mr. Pritchard or any other man they see fit to run, in the event he cannot be pulled through."

"Without mentioning names, though they will be if it ever becomes necessary, it may be stated that this check came through one attorney to another, but not for the purpose the first attorney thought, although he probably had good grounds for so believing, but subsequent events have shown that he was in error."

"After this there is no further use of denying the presence of money in the hands of Republicans, and it is fair to say that it is or will be used for the election of Mr. Pritchard or any other man they see fit to run, in the event he cannot be pulled through."

"Without mentioning names, though they will be if it ever becomes necessary, it may be stated that this check came through one attorney to another, but not for the purpose the first attorney thought, although he probably had good grounds for so believing, but subsequent events have shown that he was in error."

"After this there is no further use of denying the presence of money in the hands of Republicans, and it is fair to say that it is or will be used for the election of Mr. Pritchard or any other man they see fit to run, in the event he cannot be pulled through."

"Without mentioning names, though they will be if it ever becomes necessary, it may be stated that this check came through one attorney to another, but not for the purpose the first attorney thought, although he probably had good grounds for so believing, but subsequent events have shown that he was in error."

"After this there is no further use of denying the presence of money in the hands of Republicans, and it is fair to say that it is or will be used for the election of Mr. Pritchard or any other man they see fit to run, in the event he cannot be pulled through."

"Without mentioning names, though they will be if it ever becomes necessary, it may be stated that this check came through one attorney to another, but not for the purpose the first attorney thought, although he probably had good grounds for so believing, but subsequent events have shown that he was in error."

"After this there is no further use of denying the presence of money in the hands of Republicans, and it is fair to say that it is or will be used for the election of Mr. Pritchard or any other man they see fit to run, in the event he cannot be pulled through."

"Without mentioning names, though they will be if it ever becomes necessary, it may be stated that this check came through one attorney to another, but not for the purpose the first attorney thought, although he probably had good grounds for so believing, but subsequent events have shown that he was in error."

"After this there is no further use of denying the presence of money in the hands of Republicans, and it is fair to say that it is or will be used for the election of Mr. Pritchard or any other man they see fit to run, in the event he cannot be pulled through."

"Without mentioning names, though they will be if it ever becomes necessary, it may be stated that this check came through one attorney to another, but not for the purpose the first attorney thought, although he probably had good grounds for so believing, but subsequent events have shown that he was in error."

"After this there is no further use of denying the presence of money in the hands of Republicans, and it is fair to say that it is or will be used for the election of Mr. Pritchard or any other man they see fit to run, in the event he cannot be pulled through."

"Without mentioning names, though they will be if it ever becomes necessary, it may be stated that this check came through one attorney to another, but not for the purpose the first attorney thought, although he probably had good grounds for so believing, but subsequent events have shown that he was in error."

"After this there is no further use of denying the presence of money in the hands of Republicans, and it is fair to say that it is or will be used for the election of Mr. Pritchard or any other man they see fit to run, in the event he cannot be pulled through."

"Without mentioning names, though they will be if it ever becomes necessary, it may be stated that this check came through one attorney to another, but not for the purpose the first attorney thought, although he probably had good grounds for so believing, but subsequent events have shown that he was in error."

"After this there is no further use of denying the presence of money in the hands of Republicans, and it is fair to say that it is or will be used for the election of Mr. Pritchard or any other man they see fit to run, in the event he cannot be pulled through."

"Without mentioning names, though they will be if it ever becomes necessary, it may be stated that this check came through one attorney to another, but not for the purpose the first attorney thought, although he probably had good grounds for so believing, but subsequent events have shown that he was in error."

"After this there is no further use of denying the presence of money in the hands of Republicans, and it is fair to say that it is or will be used for the election of Mr. Pritchard or any other man they see fit to run, in the event he cannot be pulled through."

HANNA'S MONEY IN GREENSBORO.

Some of the Checks Countersigned by Holton Cash at Greensboro Banks.

The Greensboro Record says:

"Much has been said about Mark Hanna's money in the last campaign, and that a big pile of it was left over, some of it to be used in the election of a United States Senator from this State."

"Of course this has been denied by the Republicans, the reply being that they had but little at the start and that none was left."

"However this may be, whether it is Hanna's money or not, there is money yet left in his hands, and what is more, some of it was used right here in Greensboro not many days ago. The check was signed by A. E. Holton, chairman of the Republican State Executive Committee, and was cashed at one of the banks here."

"Proof of this is easily obtainable—in fact it will not be denied. It perhaps would never have been mooted had not one of the gentlemen who knew all about it thought the money had gone to a certain place and for a certain purpose, but when he spoke of it he soon discovered his error, but it was then too late, for the cat was soon out of the bag."

"Without mentioning names, though they will be if it ever becomes necessary, it may be stated that this check came through one attorney to another, but not for the purpose the first attorney thought, although he probably had good grounds for so believing, but subsequent events have shown that he was in error."

"After this there is no further use of denying the presence of money in the hands of Republicans, and it is fair to say that it is or will be used for the election of Mr. Pritchard or any other man they see fit to run, in the event he cannot be pulled through."

"Without mentioning names, though they will be if it ever becomes necessary, it may be stated that this check came through one attorney to another, but not for the purpose the first attorney thought, although he probably had good grounds for so believing, but subsequent events have shown that he was in error."

"After this there is no further use of denying the presence of money in the hands of Republicans, and it is fair to say that it is or will be used for the election of Mr. Pritchard or any other man they see fit to run, in the event he cannot be pulled through."

"Without mentioning names, though they will be if it ever becomes necessary, it may be stated that this check came through one attorney to another, but not for the purpose the first attorney thought, although he probably had good grounds for so believing, but subsequent events have shown that he was in error."

"After this there is no further use of denying the presence of money in the hands of Republicans, and it is fair to say that it is or will be used for the election of Mr. Pritchard or any other man they see fit to run, in the event he cannot be pulled through."

"Without mentioning names, though they will be if it ever becomes necessary, it may be stated that this check came through one attorney to another, but not for the purpose the first attorney thought, although he probably had good grounds for so believing, but subsequent events have shown that he was in error."

"After this there is no further use of denying the presence of money in the hands of Republicans, and it is fair to say that it is or will be used for the election of Mr. Pritchard or any other man they see fit to run, in the event he cannot be pulled through."

"Without mentioning names, though they will be if it ever becomes necessary, it may be stated that this check came through one attorney to another, but not for the purpose the first attorney thought, although he probably had good grounds for so believing, but subsequent events have shown that he was in error."

"After this there is no further use of denying the presence of money in the hands of Republicans, and it is fair to say that it is or will be used for the election of Mr. Pritchard or any other man they see fit to run, in the event he cannot be pulled through."

"Without mentioning names, though they will be if it ever becomes necessary, it may be stated that this check came through one attorney to another, but not for the purpose the first attorney thought, although he probably had good grounds for so believing, but subsequent events have shown that he was in error."

"After this there is no further use of denying the presence of money in the hands of Republicans, and it is fair to say that it is or will be used for the election of Mr. Pritchard or any other man they see fit to run, in the event he cannot be pulled through."

"Without mentioning names, though they will be if it ever becomes necessary, it may be stated that this check came through one attorney to another, but not for the purpose the first attorney thought, although he probably had good grounds for so believing, but subsequent events have shown that he was in error."

"After this there is no further use of denying the presence of money in the hands of Republicans, and it is fair to say that it is or will be used for the election of Mr. Pritchard or any other man they see fit to run, in the event he cannot be pulled through."

"Without mentioning names, though they will be if it ever becomes necessary, it may be stated that this check came through one attorney to another, but not for the purpose the first attorney thought, although he probably had good grounds for so believing, but subsequent events have shown that he was in error."

"After this there is no further use of denying the presence of money in the hands of Republicans, and it is fair to say that it is or will be used for the election of Mr. Pritchard or any other man they see fit to run, in the event he cannot be pulled through."

"Without mentioning names, though they will be if it ever becomes necessary, it may be stated that this check came through one attorney to another, but not for the purpose the first attorney thought, although he probably had good grounds for so believing, but subsequent events have shown that he was in error."

"After this there is no further use of denying the presence of money in the hands of Republicans, and it is fair to say that it is or will be used for the election of Mr. Pritchard or any other man they see fit to run, in the event he cannot be pulled through."

"Without mentioning names, though they will be if it ever becomes necessary, it may be stated that this check came through one attorney to another, but not for the purpose the first attorney thought, although he probably had good grounds for so believing, but subsequent events have shown that he was in error."

"After this there is no further use of denying the presence of money in the hands of Republicans, and it is fair to say that it is or will be used for the election of Mr. Pritchard or any other man they see fit to run, in the event he cannot be pulled through."

"Without mentioning names, though they will be if it ever becomes necessary, it may be stated that this check came through one attorney to another, but not for the purpose the first attorney thought, although he probably had good grounds for so believing, but subsequent events have shown that he was in error."

"After this there is no further use of denying the presence of money in the hands of Republicans, and it is fair to say that it is or will be used for the election of Mr. Pritchard or any other man they see fit to run, in the event he cannot be pulled through."

"Without mentioning names, though they will be if it ever becomes necessary, it may be stated that this check came through one attorney to another, but not for the purpose the first attorney thought, although he probably had good grounds for so believing, but subsequent events have shown that he was in error."

"After this there is no further use of denying the presence of money in the hands of Republicans, and it is fair to say that it is or will be used for the election of Mr. Pritchard or any other man they see fit to run, in the event he cannot be pulled through."

"Without mentioning names, though they will be if it ever becomes necessary, it may be stated that this check came through one attorney to another, but not for the purpose the first attorney thought, although he probably had good grounds for so believing, but subsequent events have shown that he was in error."

"After this there is no further use of denying the presence of money in the hands of Republicans, and it is fair to say that it is or will be used for the election of Mr. Pritchard or any other man they see fit to run, in the event he cannot be pulled through."

"Without mentioning names, though they will be if it ever becomes necessary, it may be stated that this check came through one attorney to another, but not for the purpose the first attorney thought, although he probably had good grounds for so believing, but subsequent events have shown that he was in error."

"After this there is no further use of denying the presence of money in the hands of Republicans, and it is fair to say that it is or will be used for the election of Mr. Pritchard or any other man they see fit to run, in the event he cannot be pulled through."

"Without mentioning names, though they will be if it ever becomes necessary, it may be stated that this check came through one attorney to another, but not for the purpose the first attorney thought, although he probably had good grounds for so believing, but subsequent events have shown that he was in error."

"After this there is no further use of denying the presence of money in the hands of Republicans, and it is fair to say that it is or will be used for the election of Mr. Pritchard or any other man they see fit to run, in the event he cannot be pulled through."

MINISTER WILLIS DEAD.

His Funeral in Honolulu the Most Elaborate Since King Kalakaua's.

By Telegraph to The News.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15.—Minister Willis was a native of Louisville, Ky. He contracted a heavy cold last April returning to Honolulu from a visit home.

The body will be placed temporarily in a vault to be taken to Louisville. The funeral procession in Honolulu was the most imposing since that of King Kalakaua.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 15.—The steamer "Manowai," which arrived at midnight from Honolulu, brought news that United States Minister Albert S. Willis died January sixth, after an illness covering several months, resulting from an attack of pneumonia which he suffered while on his vacation to the United States.

WITH ONE HAND TIED.

Corbett Says He Will Fight Fitzsimmons if Bob's Hand is Disabled.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Jan. 16.—Corbett today expressed the hope that Fitzsimmons' alleged injured hand will be in good shape by March 17th, the time set for the fight. He says he really believes Fitzsimmons "intends to fight this time."

Corbett says if Fitzsimmons' hand is not ready by March 17th, he will fight him with one hand tied behind his back.

"The Canadian System."

The Danville Register says: "The North Carolina legislature now in session will be asked to grant a charter for a bank at Charlotte, which in its operations will differ in some material respects from any such institution now in business in the South."

"The parent office is to be located in Charlotte, but the intention is to establish branches all over the State in smaller towns, after the manner of the 'Canadian system,' which is reputed to have been advantageous to business interests and successful generally in the Canadian provinces. In addition to the regular features of a bank of deposit and savings are to be those of trust and warehouse companies."

"The originators of this scheme believe their experiment will lead to a revolution in the banking system of the South, a revolution from which much good will come."

"The experiment will be watched with interest by the entire South, and if it proves to be as good a thing for the general public as its promoters think, the system will be adopted in other States."

"We do not know enough about the 'Canadian system' to express an opinion upon its merits, but we regard this Charlotte movement as a good sign in that it is another indication that the necessity for a change—for doing something to improve our banking system is appreciated and a remedy for present evils is being looked for."

Married in South Carolina.

PIKEVILLE, Jan. 13.—Mr. Sam Culp and Miss M. M. McCorkle, of Sharon, N. C., were married Jan. 12th, by W. O. Bailes, Esq., in South Carolina. It is reported that Mr. Bailes married ten couples during the Christmas holidays.

Mr. R. A. Ferguson and Miss M. J. Helms, of Sharon, were married Wednesday evening, Jan. 13th, by Squire W. O. Bailes.

Watson for Pritchard.

The Raleigh Tribune, the Republican organ, says: "Thomas E. Watson, the noblest Populist on earth, telegraphed Congressman Skinner on the 11th inst: 'If I were a fusionist at all, I would try to be a respectable fusionist and keep faith with my allies. If Pritchard was worthy of Populist support two years ago, he is worthy of it now.'"

Wheel Company Goes Under.

By Telegraph to The News.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Jan. 18.—The Commercial Wheel Company has assigned; liabilities $100,000.

A Young Count Castellane.

NEW YORK, Jan. 18.—Report to George Gould's office from Paris announces that a son has been born to the Countess Castellane, formerly Miss Anna Gould.

Used in Germany.

Gouze Grease has been used in Germany for thousands of years for Rheumatism, Neuralgia, sprains, bruises, etc., and found to be the most reliable remedy known. Always sold under guarantee. If it does you no good take it back to your druggist and get your money back. Made only by Gouze Grease Lintiment Co., Greenboro, N. C.

Apr 10-ly

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.

When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.

When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.

When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

When she was sick, we gave her Castoria.

When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.